LUCY SLYKERMAN – THE ART OF MOVING FORWARD

Makeovers in life can be rejuvenating, exciting and fun. For many of us, makeovers might be characterized as mini-makeovers – such as redecorating changes in our homes. What we do as weavers or textile artists may periodically require review or reassessment. What 'worked' 5 years ago or even last year may not give us the success and satisfaction we once experienced and then it is time for a mini-makeover. A production weaver for over 35 years, Lucy's talk will highlight some of the changes that she has made to keep her weaving moving forward.
